Colville Terrace

Notting Hill W11

1 Bedroom, 1 Bathroom
For 2 guests

Refined style that echoes its elegant postcode. This one-bedroom apartment is a sophisticated springboard to Notting Hill and beyond.

Characteristic of Colville Terrace's row of artfully-painted townhouses, a pistachio green exterior makes for an uplifting first impression. Spread across the first floor, this one-bedroom apartment pairs heritage grandeur with modern interior design.

Smart wood floors lead from the entrance into the open-plan kitchen and reception room, where a palette of cool tones adds a stylish edge to the heritage architecture. It's a space tailor-made for socialising, with a living area arranged around a cosy fireplace surround and a sleek kitchen complete with integrated appliances. From here, a floor-to-ceiling window slides up to reveal a balcony — an intimate setting to make the most of London's sunny days.

A hushed interior palette makes for a smart and serene environment.

A sense of calm ensues in the principal bedroom suite, crafted with neutral tones and furnishings.

Softly lit through a large window, bespoke wardrobes are perfect to store treasured possessions and purchases from Portobello Road's array of boutiques. A set of steps lead to a contemporary en suite bathroom, complete with an inviting bathtub and shower.

LOCATION

Just moments from dynamic Portobello Road, Colville Terrace is a gateway to the best of Notting Hill.

Start your day at Gail's Bakery before perusing the range of antiques stalls that line the colourful street. Brunch is best at Daylesford Organic or Sunday in Brooklyn on Westbourne Grove, before a leisurely walk around Hyde Park. An evening of fine dining at Core by Clare Smyth, Gold or the Ledbury — complete the night with a film at the iconic Electric Cinema.
