Blakemore Farm

Cotswolds GL55

7 Bedrooms, 7 Bathrooms
For 14 guests

A contemporary reimagining of a Cotswold farmhouse. This seven-bedroom country home is surrounded by ancient woodland and picturesque patchwork fields.

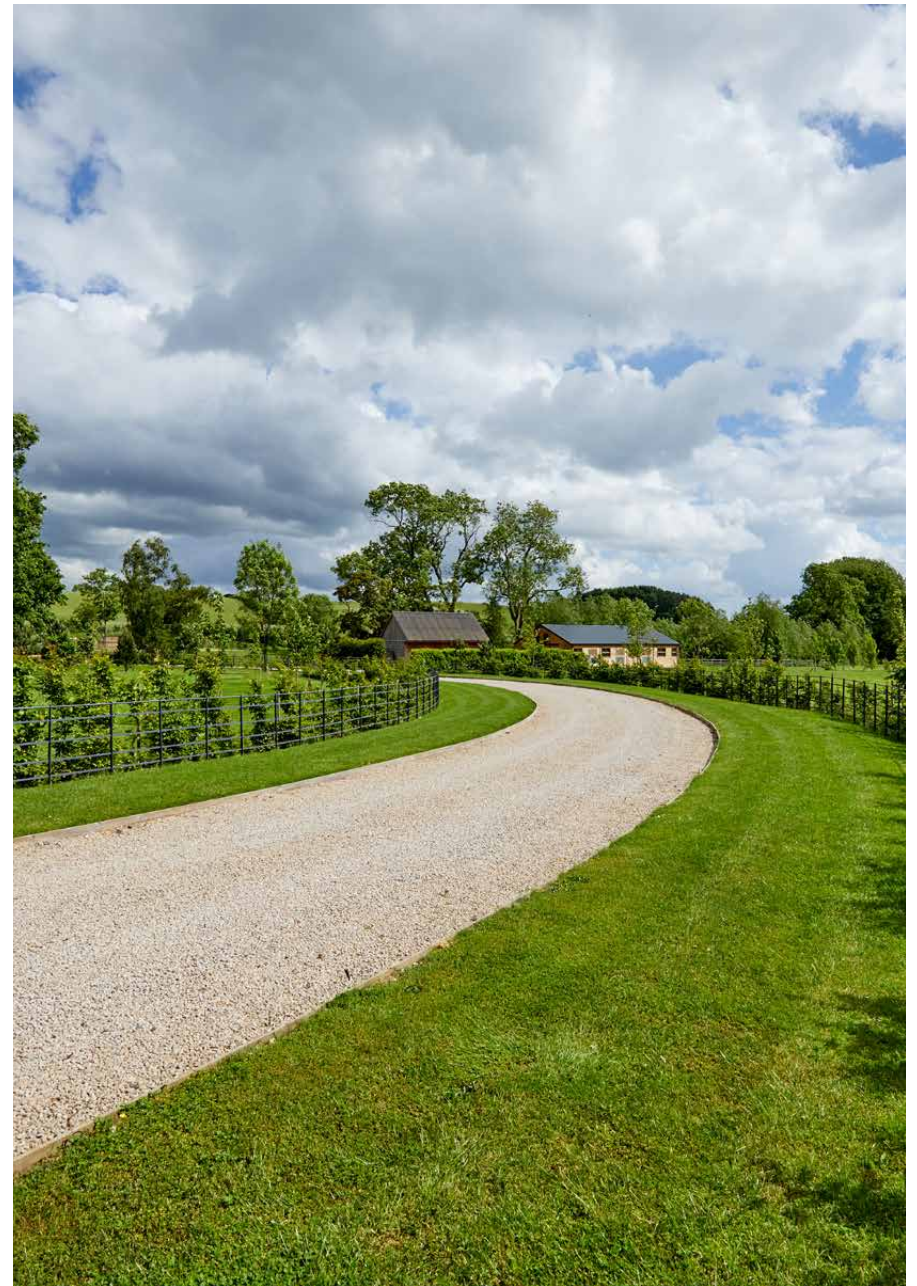

A striking family home, Blakemore Farm combines design-led living with a secluded setting. Crafted by Yiangou Architects, the property is characterised by a timeless aesthetic and the honey hue of its Cotswold limestone walls, offset by verdant grounds.

A flagstone entrance hall welcomes guests. Inspired by 18th-century chinoiserie wallpaper, hand-painted murals dance across the walls. At the heart of the plan, an open fire heats the home while a sweeping cantilevered staircase connects three floors of considered living spaces.

The hall flows into an open-plan kitchen and reception room. Arranged around a central island, the kitchen features three butler's sinks, an Aga and a range oven. Prepare lunch on marble worktops then sink into plush furnishings in the living area. Alternatively, three sets of triple-fold doors open onto the garden. As well as a separate reception room, the ground floor features a snug, a playroom and a dramatic dining room with seating for 14 – ideal for entertaining.

The generous plot includes landscaped gardens, stables and a paddock where a helicopter can land. Play a game of tennis then take a dip in the pool. The grounds are set for spending time with loved ones and reconnecting with nature. Beyond, the rolling hills of the Cotswolds speak of country walks and cosy pubs.

Rolling hills and historic villages paint a picture of England's quintessential storybook countryside.

Classic meets contemporary in rustic rooms with modern comforts.

The interior palette continues into seven serene bedrooms, set across the two upper floors. The principal bedroom suite is a calming, textual sanctuary with neutral tones and flawless design choices. A further six bedrooms are each served by a bathroom. The pool house has one further bedroom suite in addition to an open plan kitchen and living room and an outdoor shower area.

LOCATION

Set in extensive landscaped gardens, Blakemore Farm is nestled into the Cotswolds Area of Outstanding Natural Beauty.

Just outside the artistic town of Chipping Campden, it benefits from close proximity to the market towns and villages that characterise the Cotswolds. Enjoy a day out to Daylesford Farm for organic produce from Daylesford Organic, delectable small plates from The Legbar and relaxation at Bamford Spa. Soho Farmhouse is a drive away while the idyllic village of Stretton-on-Fosse is within walking distance. Home Farm airstrip is just 10 minutes' drive. For racegoers, Cheltenham is also close by.
