Blenheim Crescent

Notting Hill W11

2 Bedrooms, 1 Bathroom
For 4 guests

---

Contemporary cool with urban accents, this two-bedroom lateral apartment is set for quintessential Notting Hill life.

Situated directly above one of Notting Hill's most coveted pan-Asian eateries E&O, this two-bedroom apartment is a sanctum that feels worlds away from its vibrant postcode. Reams of natural light and considered interior design make for a calming setting, with enviable proximity to the iconic neighbouring streets.

Ascend to the second floor, welcomed by an open-plan kitchen and reception room that's tailor-made for entertaining. Bathed in sunlight through a trio of sash windows, it's spacious in aspect and uplifting in feel. At one end, teal-toned cabinets are paired with punchy stainless steel worktops — making for an engaging culinary setting. At the other end, the velvet L-shaped sofa promises relaxation. There's textural charm to the space, drawn with warm wood floors and dining furniture.

Sophisticated and serene, the principal bedroom is imagined with neutral tones and refined interior design. The space is gently lit through a sash window, while full-height storage is neatly integrated. The guest bedroom echoes this pared-back palette and tranquil atmosphere. Completing the home is a contemporary bathroom, featuring an inviting tub.

LOCATION

One of Notting Hill's most sought-after streets, Blenheim Crescent puts Portobello Road on your doorstep.

Spend mornings browsing antiques at Portobello Market or perusing literature at the iconic Notting Hill Bookshop. Stock up on groceries at the Notting Hill Meat + Fish Shop, or head to SoulCycle to set your endorphins in motion. In the evenings, catch a film at the renowned Electric Cinema or indulge in some fine dining at Gold, both just a stone's throw away. Ladbroke Grove tube station is nearby, providing easy access to the rest of London.
