Tarrant Place

Marylebone W1H

2 Bedrooms, 2 Bathrooms
For 4 guests

Calm, contemporary and considered. Nestled in a private gated mews, this two-bedroom duplex home is a serene retreat in the heart of Marylebone.

Set within an exclusive gated enclave just moments from the charming St Mary's Church, this two-bedroom duplex apartment is all refined tones and sleek interior design.

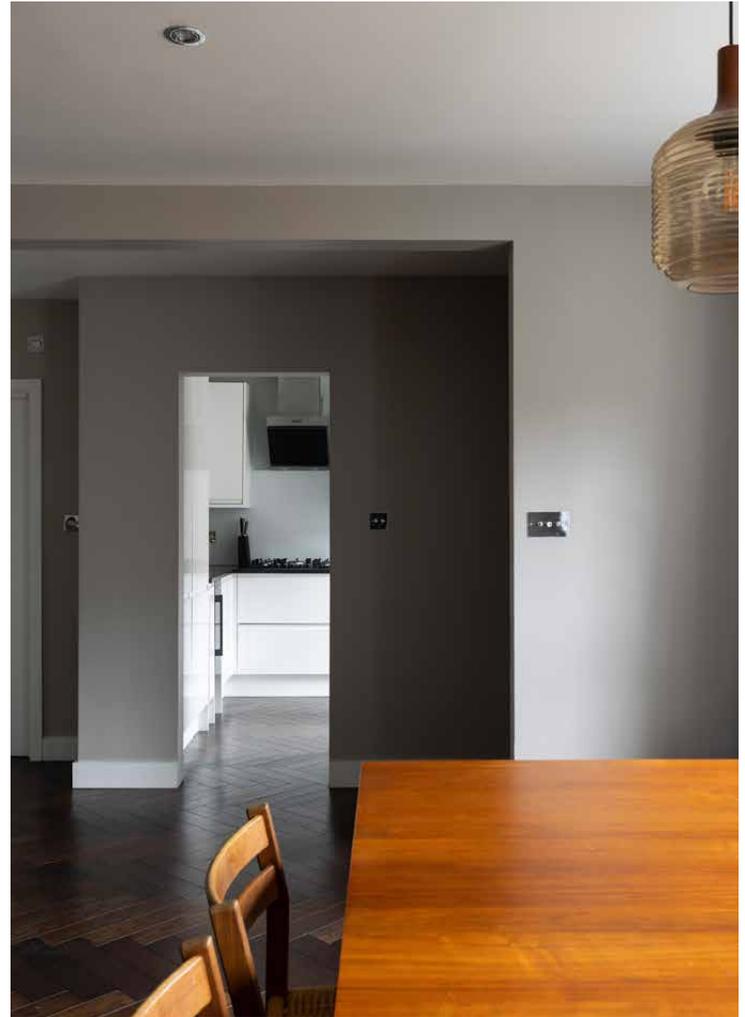

Enter from the cobbled cul-de-sac into the calming open-plan dining and reception room. A trio of glass pendant lights cast a warm glow over the dining table, complemented by the minimalist fireplace. Beyond, a luxe tuxedo sofa and lime-green armchair are poised in front of a television, perfect for cosy film nights.

The kitchen is a sleek, streamlined affair, with glossy whitewashed cabinets and integrated appliances.

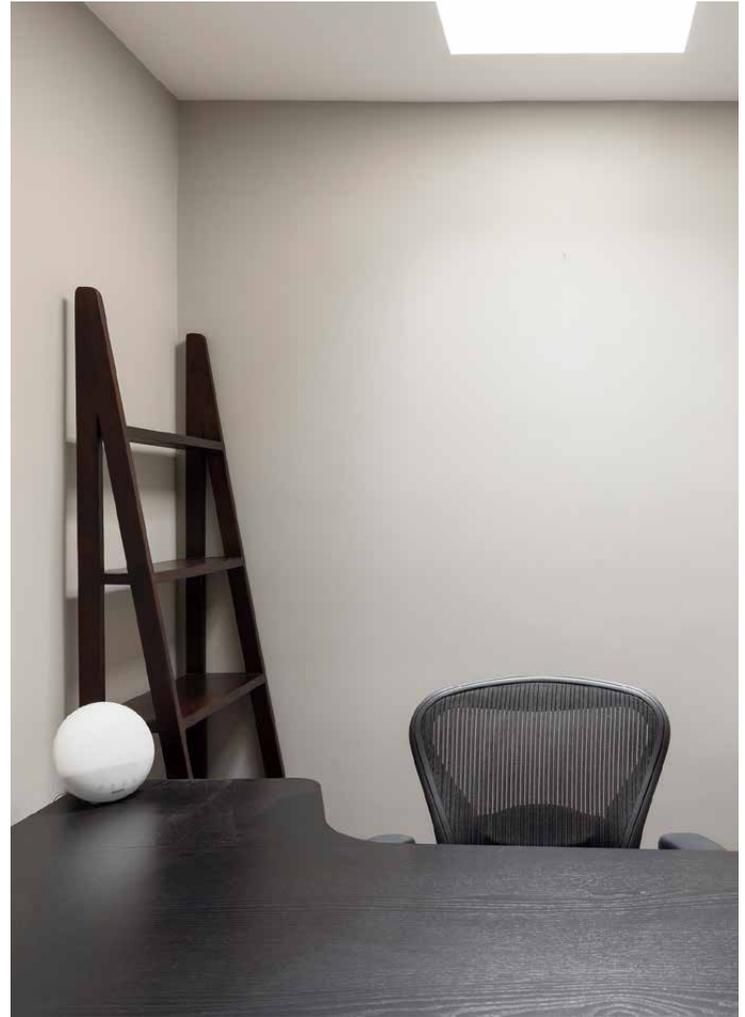

Upstairs, the bedrooms maintain a sense of tranquility with a pared-back aesthetic. The principal bedroom suite has soft grey walls and a row of integrated wardrobes – offering a neat storage solution for new-found treasures. The guest bedroom is a peaceful sanctum, filled with natural light and served by a bathroom downstairs.

Completing the first floor is a quiet study, complete with a dark wood desk and skylight – which has flexibility to be used as a bedroom.

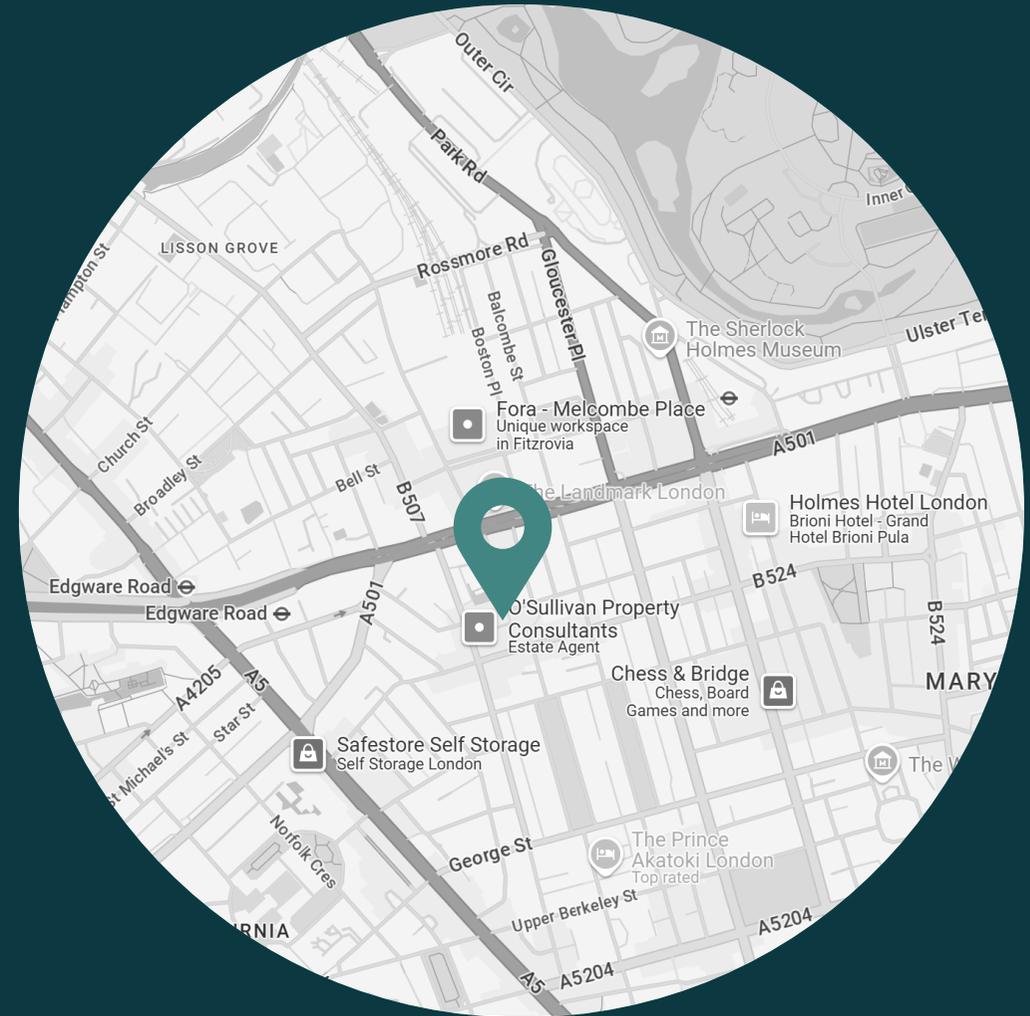

LOCATION

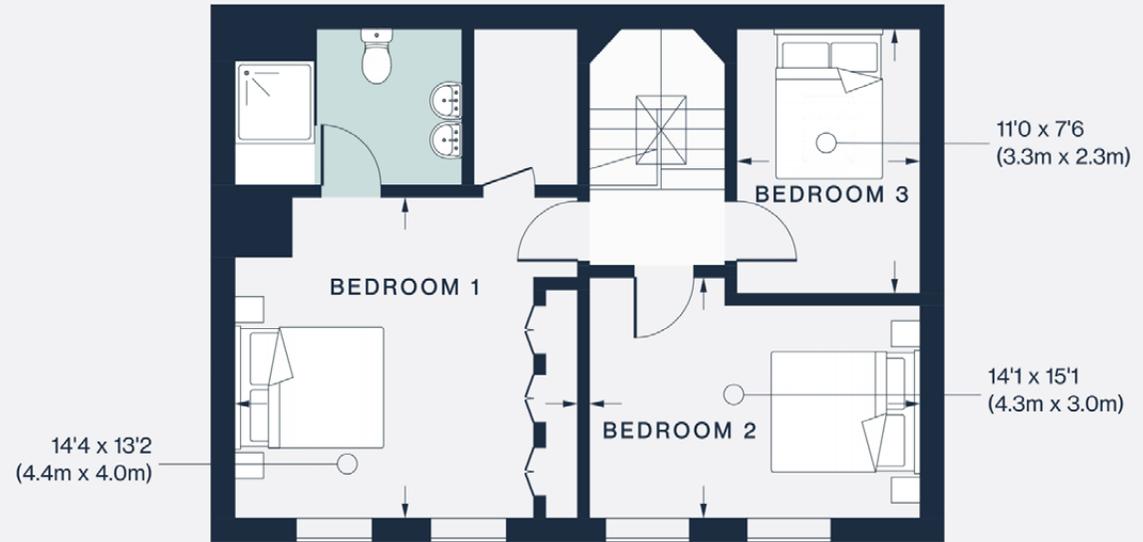

Central London with a village-like feel.

Marylebone is an enclave buzzing with independent shops and high-end eateries, tucked between the vibrant energy of Oxford Street, the refined elegance of Mayfair and the natural stretches of Regent's Park. After a day perusing the high-end boutiques of Marylebone High Street, eat well at famed dining destinations – Chiltern Firehouse, KOL and Fischers to name a few. On Sundays, stock up on local produce at the local farmer's market. During the summer, there's a fantastic programme of performances at Regent Park's Open Air Theatre, while the London Zoo is a fantastic day out year-round.
