Parsonage House

THE COTSWOLDS & COUNTRY

5 Bedrooms, 5 Bathrooms
For 10 guests

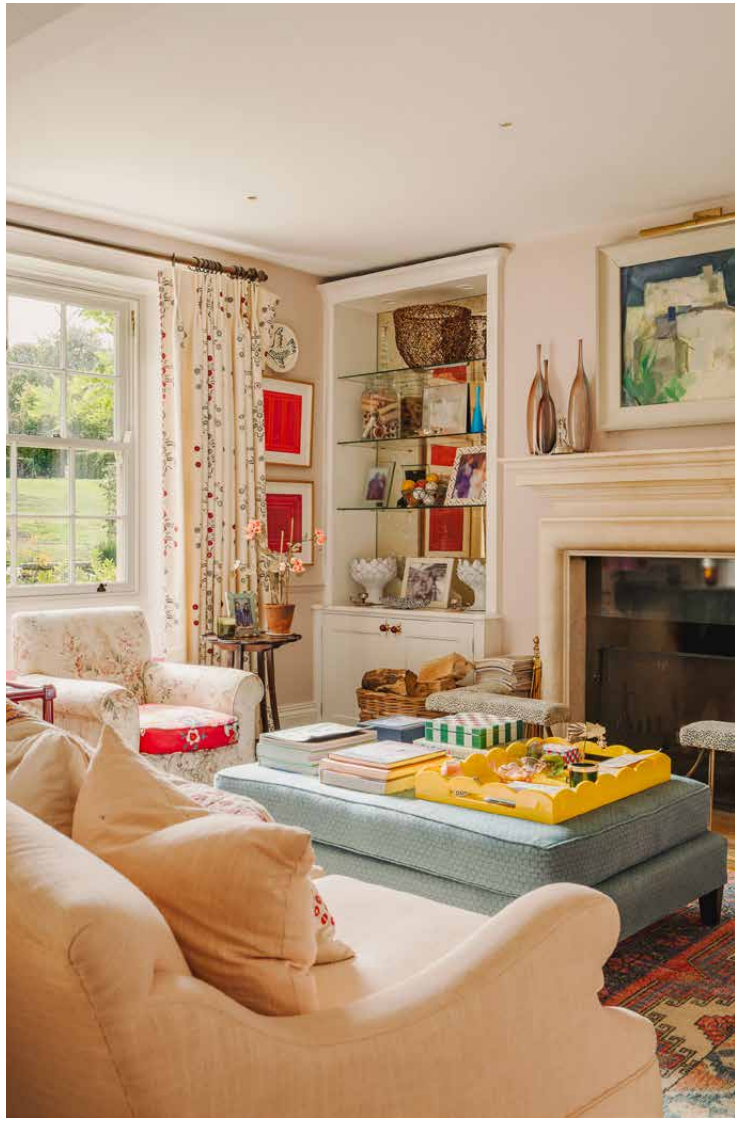

Across its verdant gardens and considered interiors, Parsonage House is a picture-perfect setting.

With its honeyed stone exterior and picture-book setting, Parsonage House looks every inch the quintessential Cotswolds home. Inside, the traditional rusticity takes a playful, contemporary turn: botanic upholstery, bold wallpapers and contemporary artwork give each space its own vibrant character, while generous glazing keeps the surrounding gardens firmly in view. With abundant space to dine, play and reset, this home has something for everyone – all while being on the doorstep to the Cotswolds' most coveted hotspots.

The living spaces

Bright patterns, bold artwork and considered furnishings: this home channels joy through its playful approach to interior design. Past the grand entrance hall with its chequered floor tiles, a series of inviting spaces unfold with colour and light. A double drawing room features two fireplaces and sofas poised for conversation; there's an imaginative spin in another living room, wrapped in hot-air-balloon wallpaper; and a dedicated cinema room has a stylish feel with its dark blue hue and eye-catching wall prints. Elsewhere, a games barn features ping pong and pool tables, while a rehearsal area is nestled into a vaulted annex – ideal for young musicians.

Kitchen & dining

The rest of the top floor is dedicated to the principal bedroom, its lofty feel enhanced by white-painted beams and impressive ceiling height. Twin heritage skylights flood the room with natural light, while shiplap-fronted wardrobes keep the palette calm and relaxing. The en suite continues the theme, with bold marble tiles, a Kaldewei Centro Duo Oval bath and a separate rainfall shower. On the ground floor, the guest bedroom is neatly arranged with bespoke cabinetry framing the bed, complemented by an en suite finished with a Dorn Bracht matte platinum rainfall shower.

Bedrooms & bathrooms

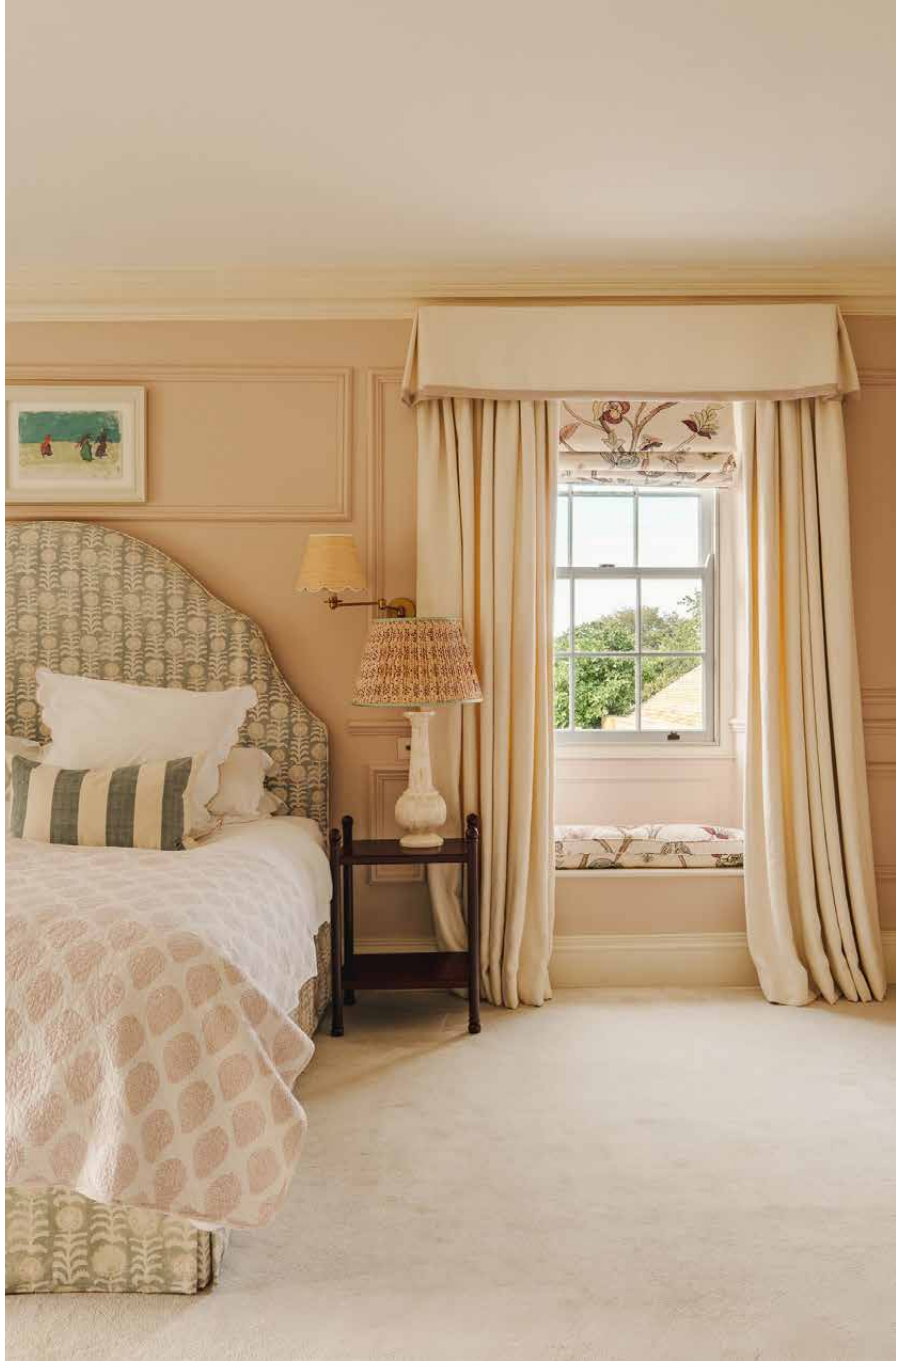

Things take a tranquil turn in the five bedrooms: expect soft carpets, pastel colour palettes, draped curtains and bold patterns across walls and upholstery. Bathrooms are equally creative, with sink-in tubs, marble accents and decorative finishes that echo the rest of the home.

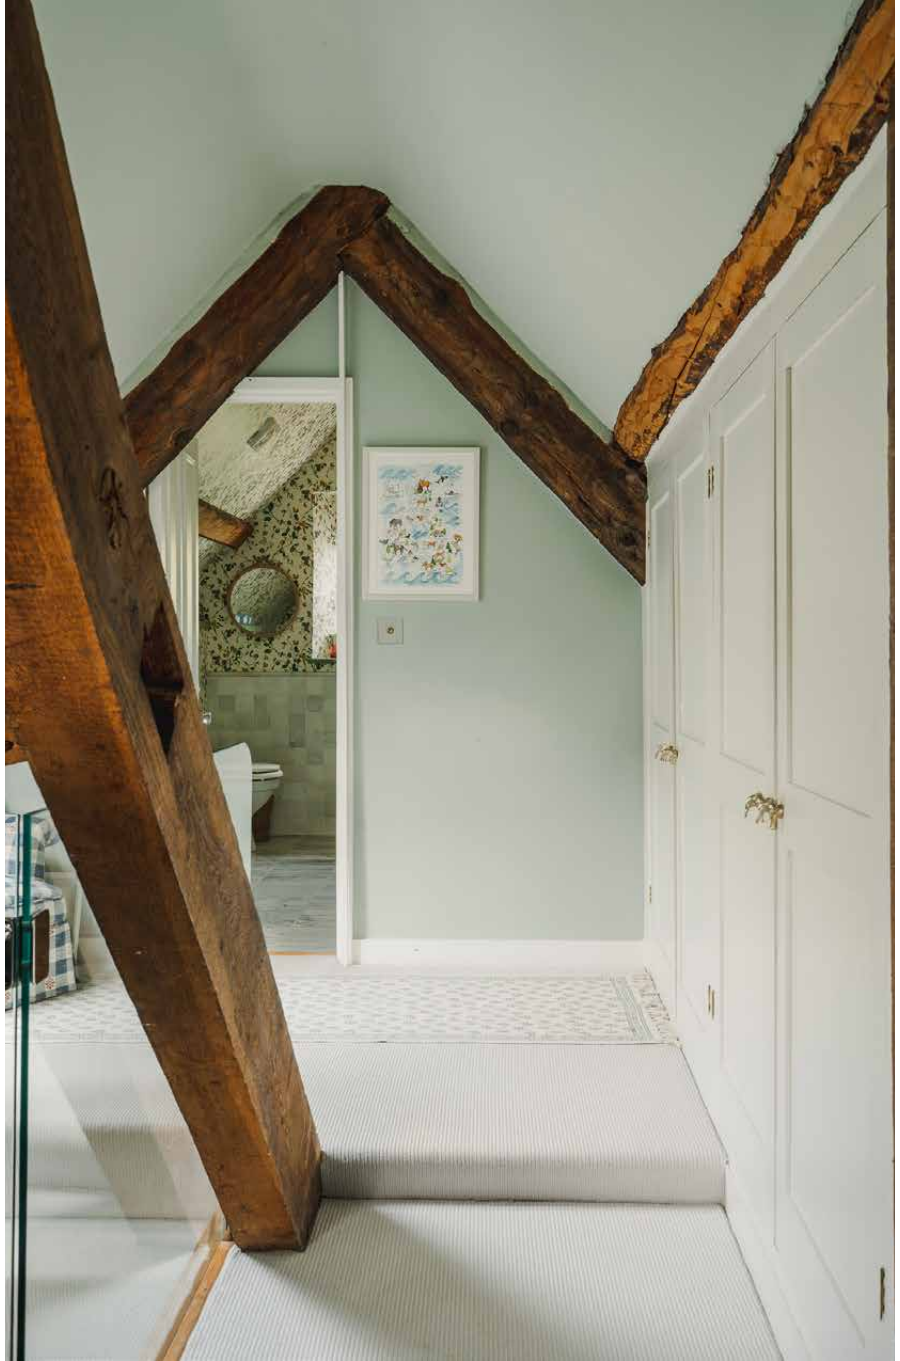

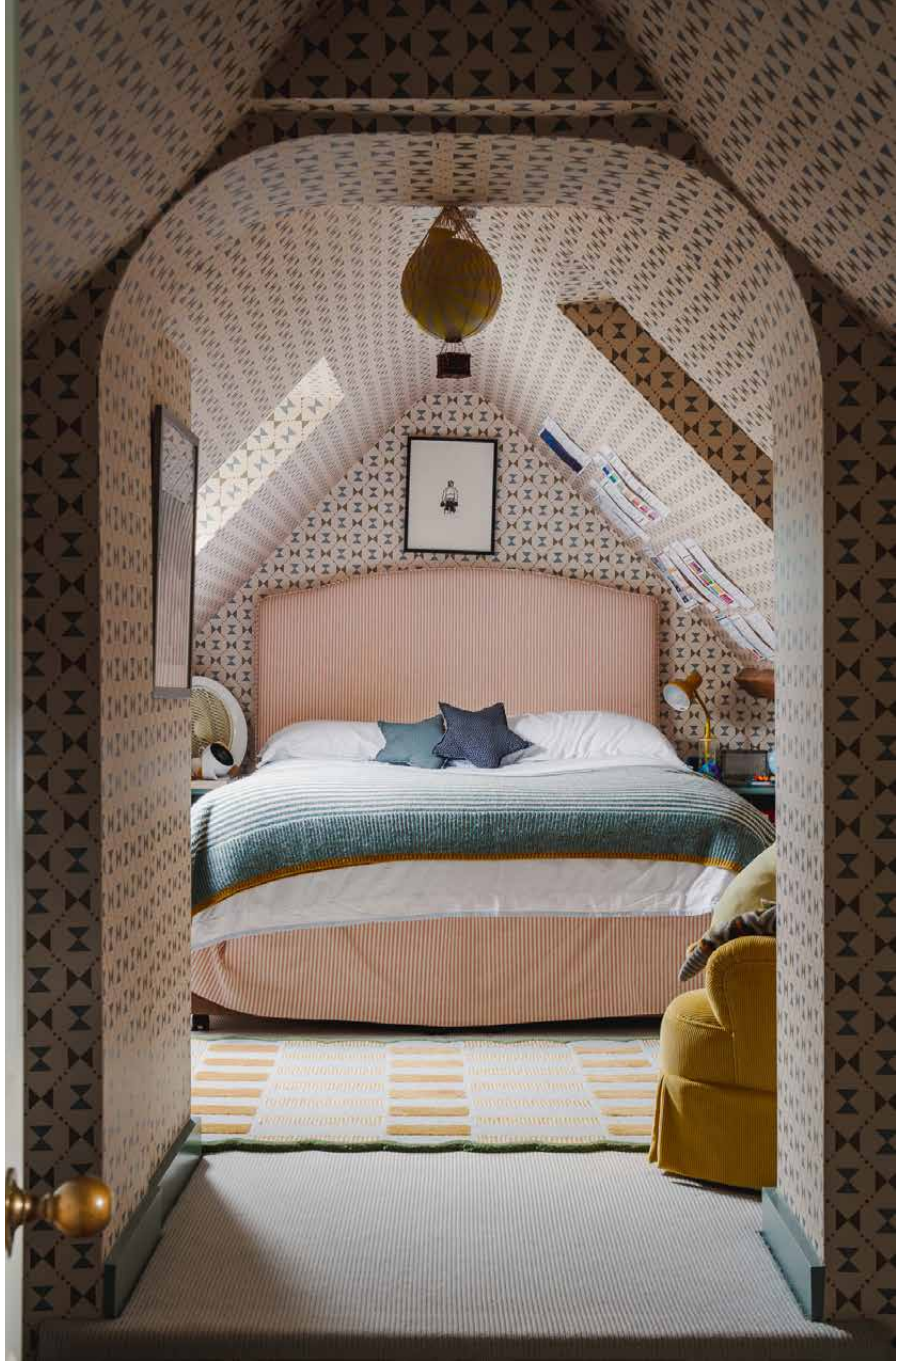

Outdoor space

Surrounded by bucolic countryside, outdoor pursuits are plentiful at Parsonage House. In the summertime, dip between the natural swimming pool and games on the full-size tennis court. After exercising, head to the outdoor kitchen and dining area; rustic bench seating, a pizza oven and integrated heaters set the scene for long lunches that linger into the evening. A jacuzzi, cold plunge and steam room are set for those seeking a proper wellness retreat. Nestled in the garden, there's a shepherd's hut offering additional privacy for guests.

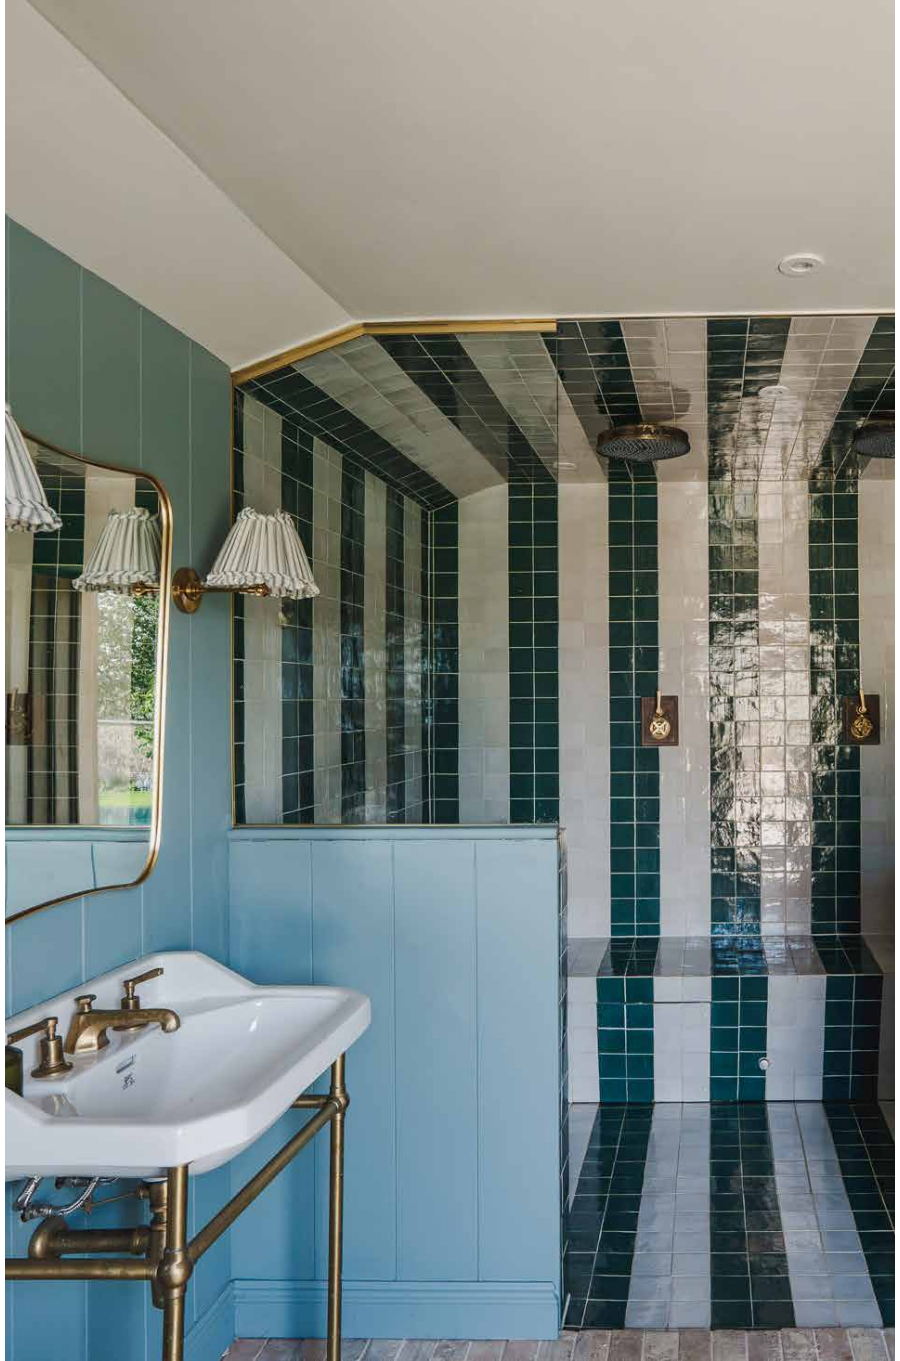

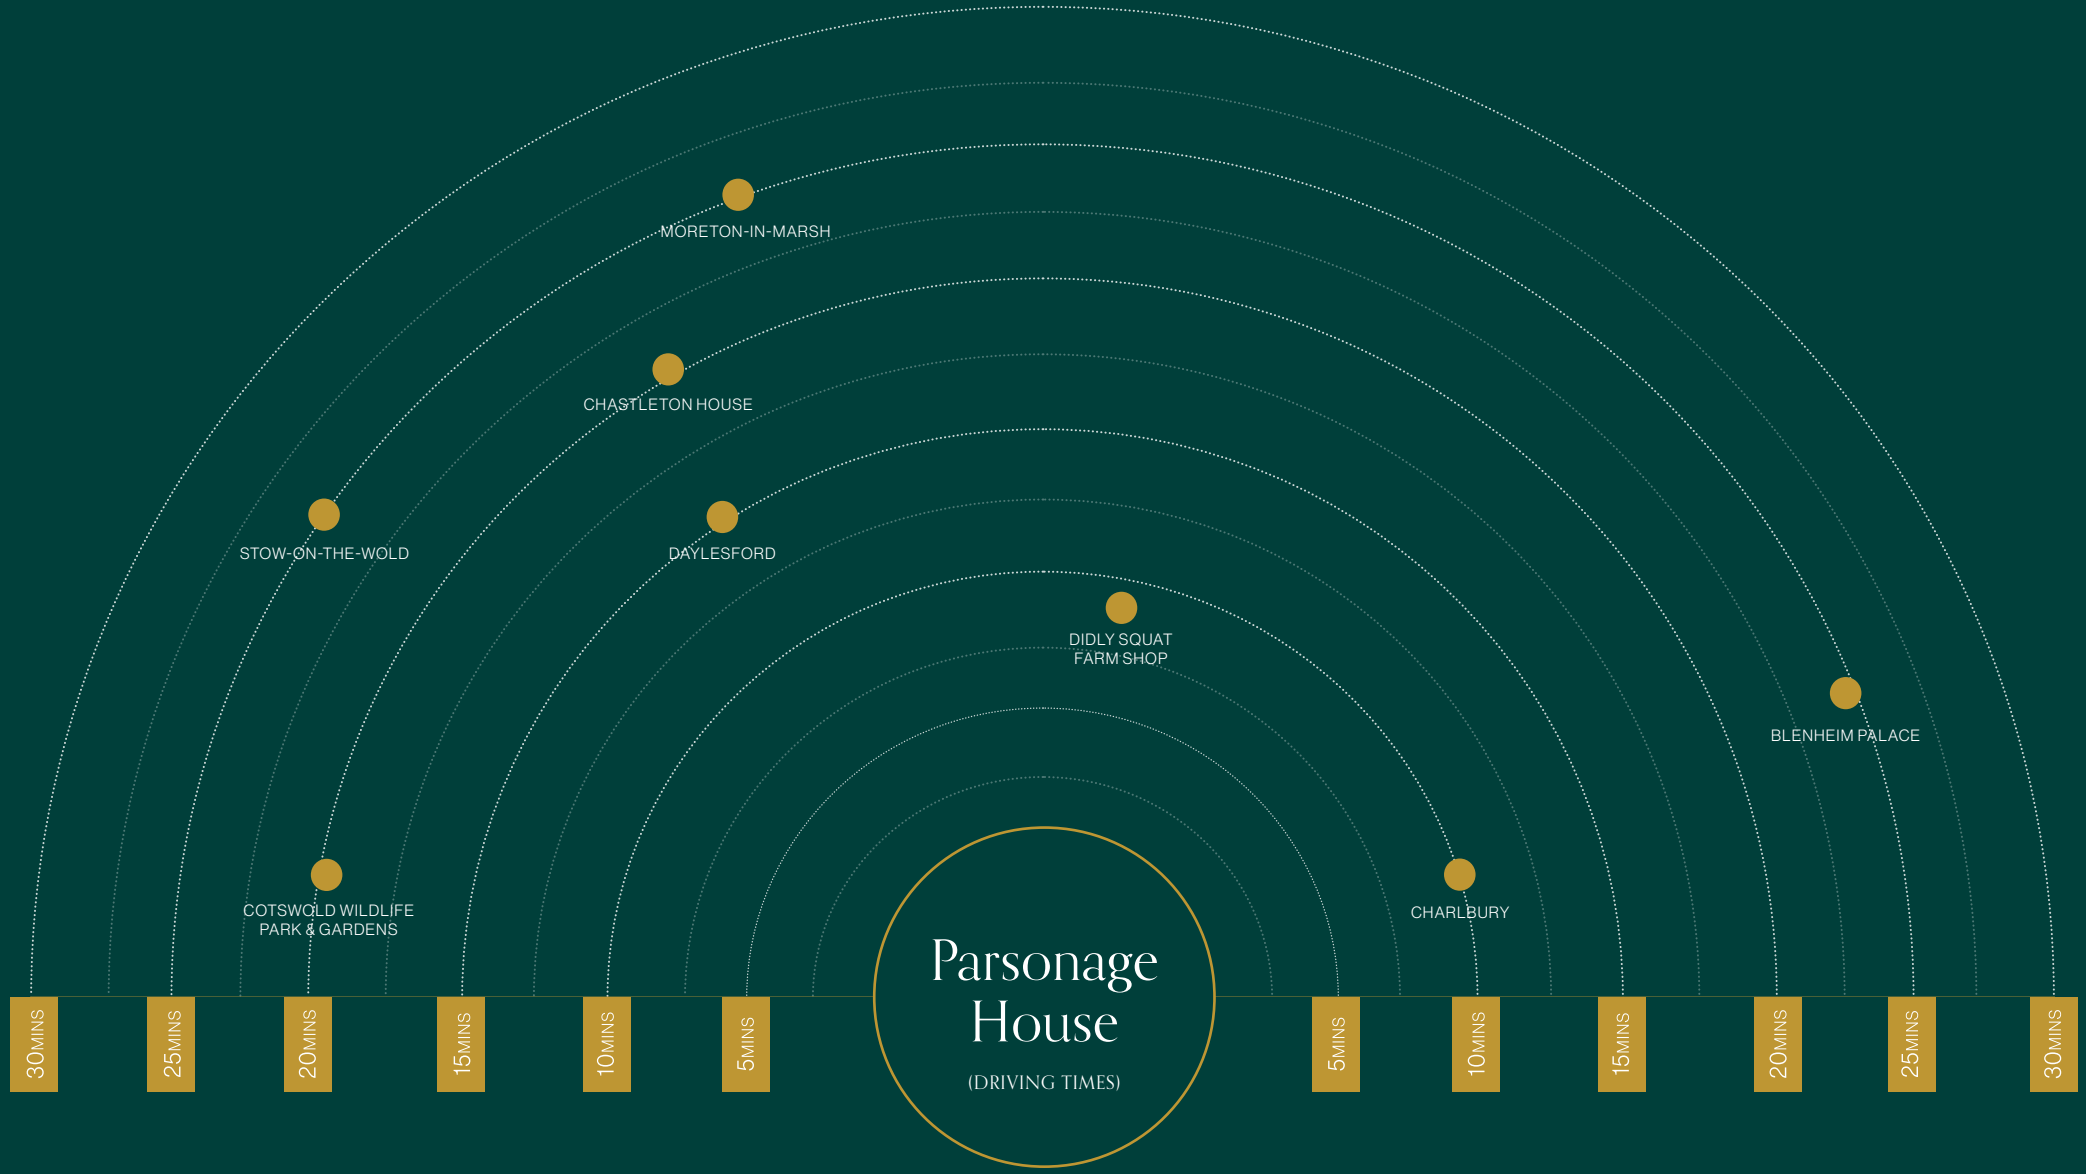

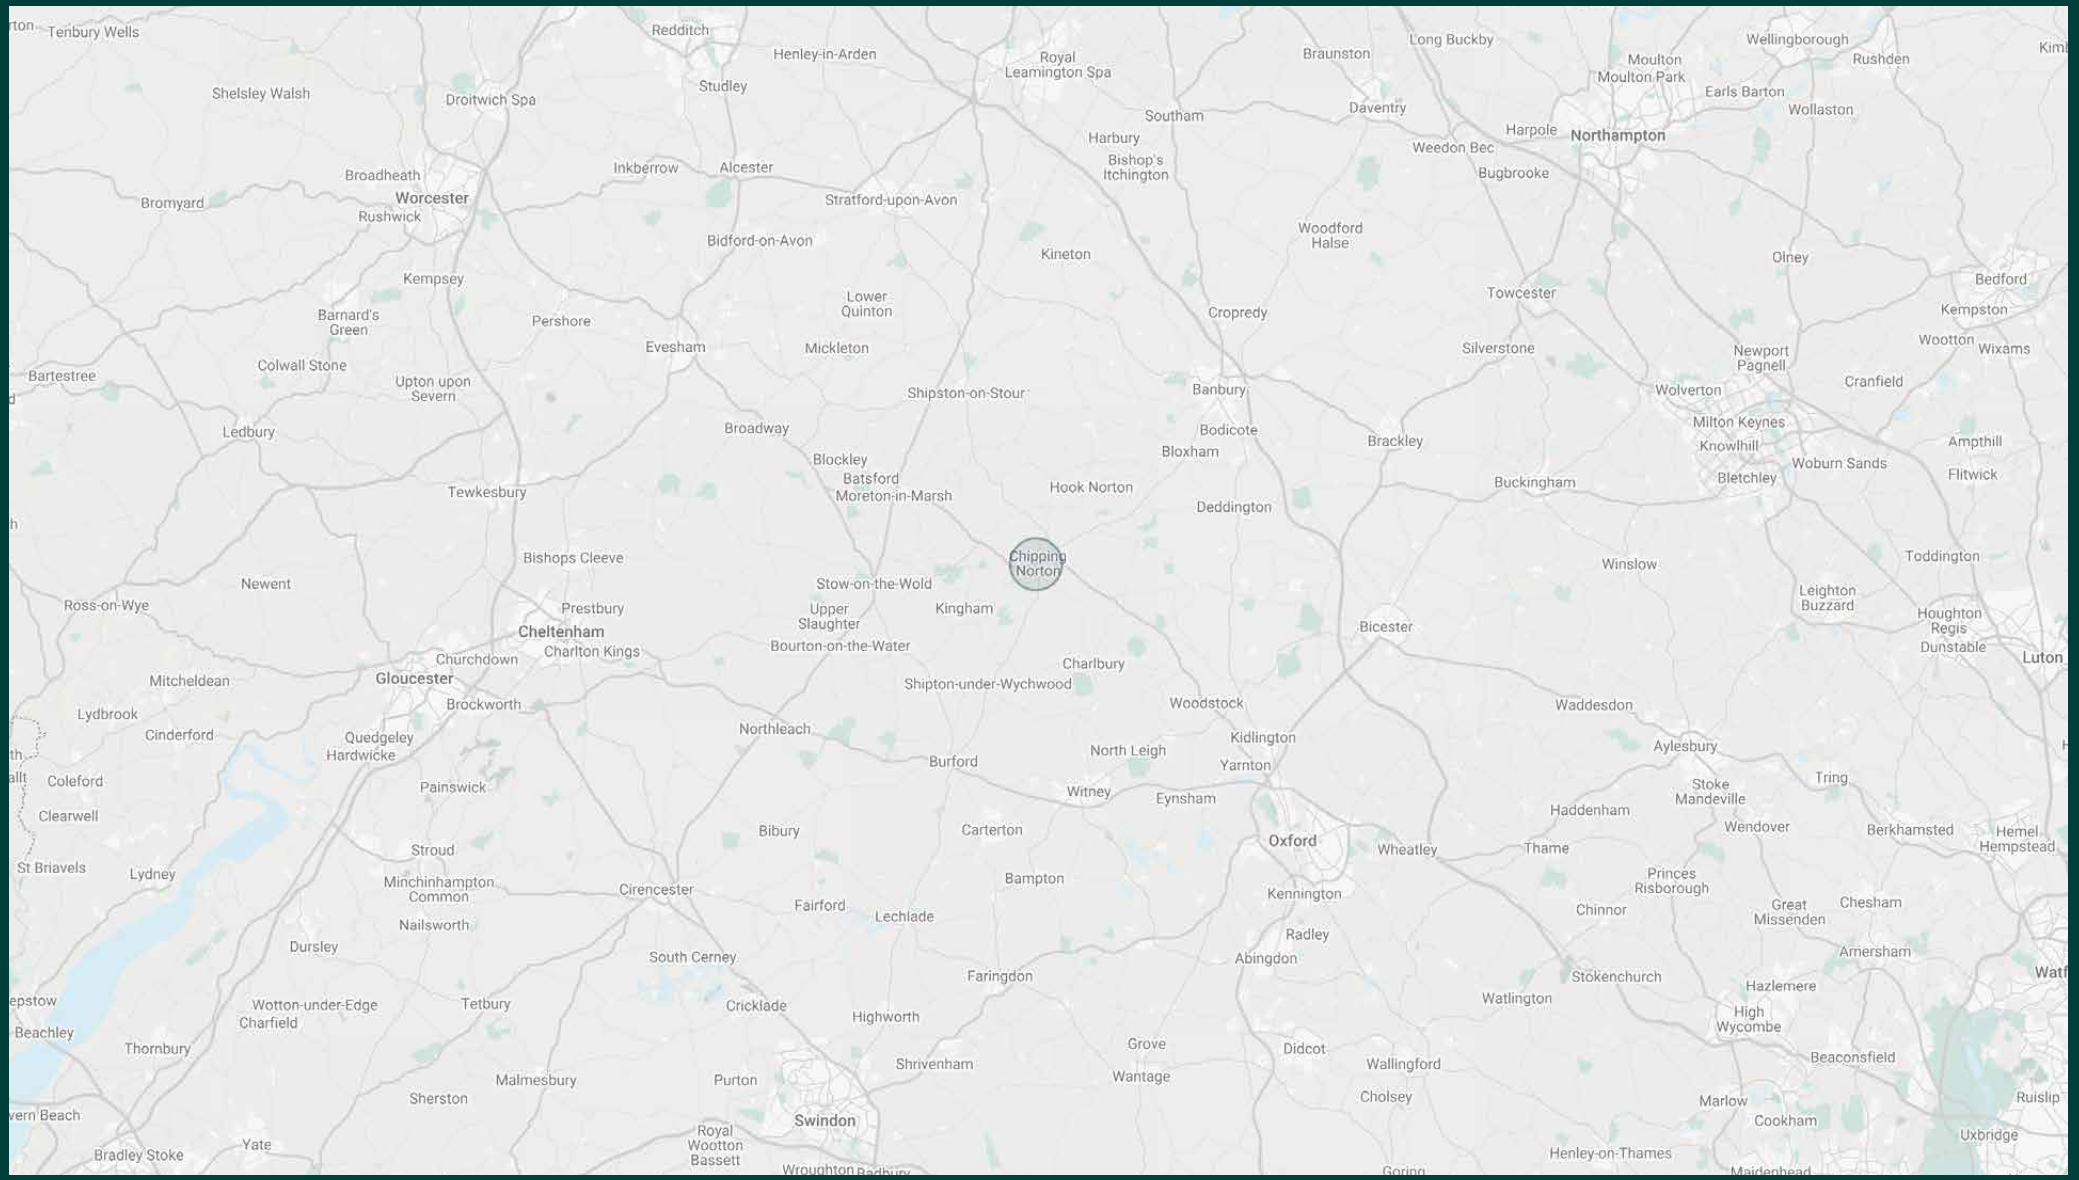

The surroundings

Tucked into Oxfordshire's slice of the Cotswolds, Parsonage House is positioned near Chipping Norton – or "Chippy," as locals affectionately call it – a charming market town that puts the best of the region at your doorstep. It's a short drive to Daylesford's farm-to-fork restaurant, organic shop and luxury Bamford spa, or venture to Soho Farmhouse for its famed wellness offerings and excellent kids' club. Village-hop between picturesque Bibury, Bourton-on-the-Water, Broadway and Stow-on-the-Wold, picking up artisanal produce or antique souvenirs in each spot. A short trip to Woodstock reveals the grandeur of Blenheim Palace and its expansive grounds. You're spoilt for choice when it comes to fine dining, too – from The Wild Rabbit in Kingham, to The Double Red Duke in Clanfield and The Chequers in Chipping Norton itself.
